Cancellations – moving booking dates

Refunds are no longer given, but bookings may be moved to a later date within the current season. Movements to bookings can be made no later than three nights before the first night. To move bookings you must do this on the same booking number (edit the booking, enter the new dates and then delete the old dates). Payments are not transferred between booking numbers. If you create a new booking, which will require full payment, then payment for the old booking will be a donation to the club, we thank you in advance.

If you decide not to use your booked nights and it is past the deadline to move it, you must;-

1. Phone the hut on 07 892-3710 informing that you will not be there.

This will enable those at the hut to cater for the correct number of people and duties to be allocated correctly.

In exceptional circumstances refunds may be given. Requests for refunds must be in writing to bookings@alpinesport.org.nz within one month of the end of the ski season, giving dates cancelled and the reason why you were unable to move to a later date. Refunds are at the discretion of the booking officer or Ruapehu Co-ordinator.

Staying on: If you stay on, for any reason, you must contact the hut warden and pay for the extra nights. If possible please book yourself into the booking system. Please ask the hut warden to book you a bunk for the extra night in the booking system if you cannot book it yourself.

Children: All children under 16 must be accompanied by an adult.

Guests: Each member's booking may take up to four guests, accommodation being requested for them on the booking system. You must contact the booking officer if you wish to take additional guests. Members are responsible for their guests - inside and outside the huts during the whole of their stay and must ensure that their guests have appropriate clothing, torches, footwear and packs and must also remain resident in the same hut throughout their guests stay.

Group Bookings: A limited number of weekends and unlimited mid-week periods could be available for groups of friends and associates wishing to hire a whole or part of a hut. Please contact the Booking Officer for availability.
